Student Monthly Income and Expense Statement

On your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the federal government has indicated that the total income you reported does not appear sufficient to meet basic living expenses. Therefore, to continue processing your FAFSA, you must provide an estimate of your living expenses (such as food, clothing, utilities, housing, transportation, etc.) and all sources of your income in 2010.

Complete the following sections, sign, and return this form to our office USING 2010 EXPENSES, NOT CURRENT YEAR EXPENSES. If additional space is needed, you may attach additional pages to this form.

Artificially inflating your expenses will not result in the receipt of more financial aid.

1. In 2010 did you (and your spouse, if married) live with parents? (circle one) YES NO

If you answered "YES," go to page 2, complete sections 2 & 3, sign this form and return to Student Financial Services. No further information is required. If you answered "NO," complete Sections 1, 2 and 3, sign and return.

2. In 2010 did you (and your spouse, if married) share living expenses with others? (circle one) YES NO

If YES, with whom? _____ Their relationship to you: _____

3. In 2010 did you (and your spouse) pay rent? (circle one) YES NO

4. In 2010 did you (and your spouse) pay a mortgage? (circle one) YES NO

If you answered NO to questions 3&4 please explain in Section 3
